Review: Just finished reading the Tao of Happiness today. I ordered on my kindle the day it was released. I love the stories in this book. Chuang Tzu was masterful at conveying the way through stories. I also love the writing style of Derek Lin. His interpretations of each story are so clear and helpful. I started with The Tao of Daily Life, then The...

This is a good resource from someone who understands men. At the end, a lonely Pat will face some tough choices. For accommodation, restaurant tips, and transport info, you're much better off with a smartphone with a good data plan and the helpful advice of locals. I really enjoyed reading this. Bonus if you are familiar with northeastern New Jersey (as Pluck obviously is). Another fast paced, action packed story. Yes, there's some pretty graphic violence, sex, philosophy about life, and outrageous action scenes that go on for pages. It was really sad in the beginning, but it got a lot more interesting in the middle and end.) (except foam wire coated)37.
